

DREW N. LEONARD

Dartmouth College
Hanover, NH 03755
(+1) 727-667-2749
dnl.19@dartmouth.edu

EDUCATION

---

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| Sept. 2015–June 2019Hanover, NH     | Dartmouth College — B.A. in Government and Computer Science, GPA: 3.86/4.00Achievements: Top 15% of Class, Class of 1921 Ellwood H. Fisher Fund Recipient, War and Peace Fellowship, Presidential Research ScholarshipCoursework: Machine Learning, Object-Oriented Programming, Intermediate Statistics, Game Theory, Data Visualization, Conventional Military Analysis, Foreign Policy Analysis |
| Sept. 2017–Dec. 2017London, England | London School of Economics — Custom Programme, International Relations   |

EXPERIENCE

---

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| June 2018–PresentSeattle, WA         | OfferUp — Data Science Intern, Trust & Safety  |
| Jan. 2018–Mar. 2018San Francisco, CA | Uber — Software Engineering Intern, Trust & Safety <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Built database infrastructure tools that collect, analyze, and disseminate critical intelligence in real-time, enabling the Security Team to monitor and mitigate global risks to Uber</li><li>Developed and implemented benchmark metrics to measure Security Team compliance rates, raising reporting and compliance of Global Travel and Global Events programs to above 95% from sub-30%</li><li>Identified and filled other needs across Security, such as SQL querybuilding, documenting code, KPI training, &amp; map-building</li></ul>                               |
| June 2017–PresentHanover, NH         | Dartmouth Government Department — Research Assistant (Presidential Scholar) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Create interactive dashboards that allow users to explore concepts and data central to the Early Warning Project, an initiative to identify countries at risk of state-led mass killings</li><li>Research international relations topics central to the Early Warning Project to inform and guide topics covered in dashboards, using online and open-source information (e.g., policy journals &amp; memorandums)</li><li>Write articles for the Early Warning Project's website to communicate conclusions from data analyses</li></ul>            |
| June 2016–Aug. 2016New York, NY      | Council on Foreign Relations — Research Intern, Greenberg Center for Geoeconomic Studies <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Prepared reports and conducted extensive research on political economy and foreign policy topics between 1947 and 1949 for narrative of the Marshall Plan (The Marshall Plan: Dawn of the Cold War)</li><li>Coordinated and ran day-long Foreign Affairs LIVE event, "Mexico's Urban Future," that convened policymakers, business leaders, and academics</li><li>Role-played as the U.S. Treasury Secretary in simulated National Security Council meeting in session of CFR's Model Diplomacy Program, to advise on program</li></ul> |

LEADERSHIP

---

- |                                      |  |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| Mar. 2017–PresentHanover, NH     | War and Peace Fellowship Program — Fellow <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Organize and participate in events with government officials and academics working on war and peace issues as part of highly-selective program</li><li>Meet with experts in different fields to discuss and receive advice on opportunities related to war and peace issues, with culminating event in Washington, D.C.</li></ul>   |
| Sept. 2015–Sept. 2018Hanover, NH | World Outlook Journal of International Affairs — Editor-in-Chief <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Oversaw soliciting editing, and publishing of 5-6 academic papers each term, written on international relations topics by undergraduates from around the world</li><li>Managed $2,000 budget for publishing, marketing, panels, and lectures</li><li>Organized and conducted interviews with government officials and professors for publishing</li></ul> |